

Mini Crop Walk

Permission Slip

(for safety's sake, no child can attend Sunday school events without a signed permission slip)

Sunday school students, teachers and adult volunteers will be participating in a mini CROP WALK on Sunday, October 13, 2019. We will be walking from our church to Kennedy Park and then back again. We will start the walk at 10:45 a.m. and return by 12:00 p.m. We may visit the playground so please have your child dress accordingly.

Special Instructions:

In the event my child becomes ill or is injured while under church supervision, I approve of the sponsors taking the following steps:

1. Contact a parent or the emergency contact of the young person and follow his/her instructions;
2. In the event that neither parent nor emergency contact can be reached, contact the young person's physician and follow his/her instructions; or
3. If the young person's physician cannot be reached, contact a properly licensed practicing physician and following his/her instructions.

If my child is involved in an accident and requires treatment, the attending physician has my permission to examine and begin treatment in my absence.

I agree to relieve the First Presbyterian Church of Iselin and its youth group sponsors from any liability in connection with these activities and instructions.
